HALL OF RECORDS COMMISSION
ACTIVITIES REPORT NO. 37

FISCAL YEAR 1972

HALL OF RECORDS COMMISSION

The Hall of Records Commission is an ex officio body created by Chapter 18 of the Acts of 1935 to collect and preserve the historical records of Maryland and to encourage research and investigation in the history of the Province and State. Since passage of this Act, additional responsibilities and duties have been assigned to the Hall of Records Commission and thereby to the staff of the Hall of Records: to administer the Records Management Program for State and County governmental agencies; to compile and distribute the MARYLAND MANUAL; and to supervise the microfilming of current land records for its files and for the State Department of Assessments and Taxation. The Hall of Records has been made a depository for all publications of State agencies. Also, its staff microfilms the Proceedings of the General Assembly at the close of each legislative day. The Hall of Records Commission acts as the historical agency of the State. It participates in the planning and conduct of historical celebrations, the restoration of monuments and houses, and the search for historical data necessary for the conduct of the State's business.

On January 25, 1967, the Archivist assumed the duties of the Commissioner of the Land Office as Commissioner of Land Patents (Article 54, Sections 12 et seq.)

Chapter 97 of the Acts of 1970, which was approved April 15, 1970, and became effective on August 1, 1970, placed the Hall of Records Commission in the Department of General Services. This resulted in a number of changes, one of which is the Secretary of the Department of General Services replaces the Governor of the State of Maryland as a member of the Hall of Records Commission. The members of the Hall of Records Commission for fiscal year 1972 and the offices which entitled them to membership were the following:

HONORABLE ROBERT C. MURPHY, Chairman
Chief Judge, Court of Appeals of Maryland

DR. RICHARD D. WEIGLE, Vice Chairman
President of St. John's College

HONORABLE GEORGE R. LEWIS
Secretary of the Department of General Services

SAMUEL HOPKINS, ESQUIRE
President of the Maryland Historical Society

DR. STEVEN MULLER, PRESIDENT
President of The Johns Hopkins University

DR. RICHARD FRANKO GOLDMAN
President of the Peabody Institute

The Hall of Records Commission met once during the year on February 14, 1972.

ARCHIVAL HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE YEAR

Efforts were continued by the Archivist to return the records of the State of Maryland to their rightful custody. Emphasis was put on the Scharf Papers, now in the custody of the Maryland Historical Society, having been placed there by The Johns Hopkins University Library. They were given to the University by J. Thomas Scharf with the condition that they would be organized and added to until they formed a body of records rich enough for students of Southern History. The University neglected them sorely until finally it gave them to the Historical Society in the hope that there they would receive the attention they deserved. However, for many years this hope was unfulfilled until the last few years when the Society had made an effort to organize them in some sort of arrangement so that they would be usable.

At the last meeting of the Hall of Records Commission, which was attended by Mr. Hopkins, President of the Society, and Mr. Filby, Director, a compromise was struck: the Society would furnish xerox copies of the manuscript material in the collection for which the State would pay five thousand dollars. At the present time, about a fourth of the materials have been sent to us. I have examined all of them and come to the obvious conclusion that all of it comes from the files of the Land Office primarily from the nineteenth century with a small percentage from the second half of the eighteenth century. And like all compromises this one has proved to be unsatisfactory. All of the original material should be returned to the Land Office files where they would fall into their natural place and not require an artificial arrangement which would be immensely difficult and unnatural according to every recognized archival principle.

While no new county record series were acquired this year, we filled in some others, for example, from the Baltimore Superior Court we filmed over four hundred volumes of land records bringing this series from January 1947 to June 1948. There remains to be done the land records from June 1948 to December 1948 in order to fill the series from the first volume to the last volume. The Register of Wills records were likewise completed. Two surveyor's records from the late eighteenth century to the middle of the nineteenth were brought from the Frederick County Courthouse. Thirty-five volumes of Talbot County Assessment Books from the middle nineteenth century to the middle of the twentieth century were likewise accessioned. Two additional Protestant Episcopal Church Records were microfilmed, Christ Church in Anne Arundel County, and the six or seven parish records from the Cathedral Church of the Incarnation.

Our effort to complete records of the United Methodist churches in Maryland went on apace, for the most part, from the middle of the nineteenth century, were filmed and added to our collection. In addition we received the records of two churches of the United Brethren in Christ sects..

The Director of the Maryland State Library persented us with fifteen reels of scattered issues of the Morning Sun and a run of the Maryland Gazette from 1745 to 1839 in Xidex copies. The publication program of the Hall of Records Commission continued as usual; the Maryland Manual appeared in February 1972 (1971-1972 edition). The Archivist compiled and edited a new history of Maryland, The Old Line State, he published his annual report which has a name change to Highlights of 1972. He also published "Captain Gordon of the Constellation" in the winter edition, 1972 of the Maryland Historical Magazine.

The repair room was again plagued with absenteeism. The record of laminating documents was fairly good, but binding books showed a trend downward. However, the problem of rebinding manuscripts is a difficult one. We sent a volume of the Ledgers of the Treasurer of the Western Shore to be rebound at the Library of Congress, which we had agreed to do when the Ledgers were deposited with us, and it is almost two years since it has been there and it is not done yet!

The work of the photographic department was excellent both in quantity and in quality which gives us great satisfaction because most of the additions of Church Records is by film.

The work of the summer indexing project was also satisfactory. Three counties remained to be done for the 1783 assessments of Maryland: Calvert, Caroline and Somerset. The assessment was completed during the first three weeks of the project. The rest of the project was devoted to calendaring papers of the revolutionary period in our uncalendared executive papers.

Two volunteer workers, Mrs. Irvin C. Brown and Mrs. Louise Joyner Hienton, continued their much appreciated work throughout the year. They indexed the Marriage Records of Prince George's County 1776 as well as the Register of St. Paul's Baden, Protestant Episcopal Church, also in Prince George's County. Had we many more such competent volunteer workers our efforts to create finding aids to many of our records would be enormously expedited.

RECORDS MANAGEMENT HIGHLIGHTS DURING THE YEAR

The Records Management Division provides guidance and assistance to State and local government agencies in developing a continuing economical and efficient paper work management program as well as a microfilming service.

Analysts advise agencies on records creation and their maintenance while in current use and develop schedules for the retention and disposition of their records. During 1972, sixty four (64) schedules controlling 226 record series were established bringing the total number of schedules established since the inception of the program in 1953 to 998 and the record series governed by these schedules to 6,465. As record systems change, the schedules must be updated if they are to continue to be meaningful.

Under the authority contained in these schedules, 14, 351 cu. ft. of records were disposed of during this report period. Approximately 10,700 sq. ft. of floor space and 1,784 filing cabinets would have been required to retain these records.

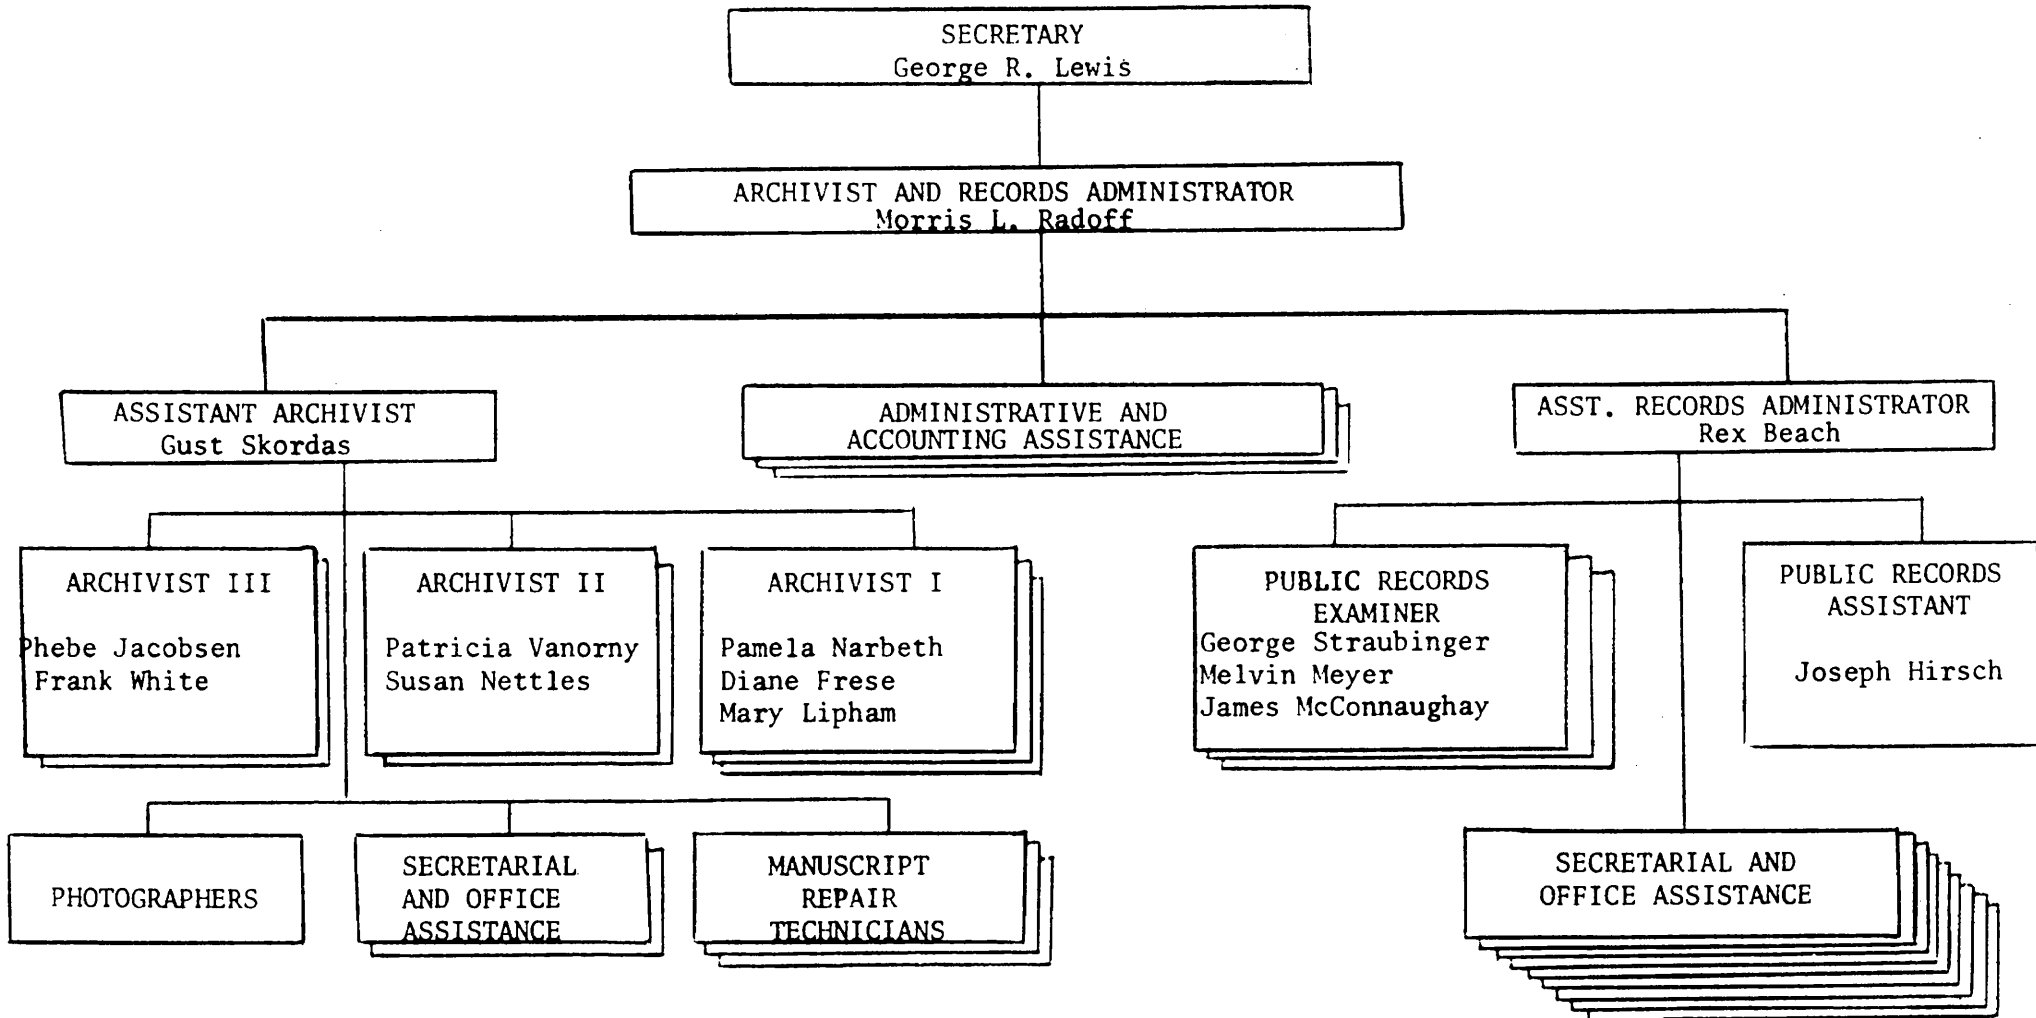

Three records centers for storing and servicing the State's noncurrent records are administered by the Division, one each in Annapolis, Baltimore and Waterloo. The centers are actually an extension of the individual agency's record keeping systems, providing low cost storage for records not yet eligible for disposal nor sufficiently active to be retained in expensive office space and filing equipment. The Waterloo Center, with a storage capacity of 22,272 cu. ft., became available in June 1972 and records and shelving formerly housed in the old Annapolis Armory were transferred there. Together, the three centers can house approximately 45,000 cu. ft. of records and presently contain about 33,000 cu. ft. During, 1972, 6,926 cu. ft. of records were transferred to the centers in addition to the 6,000 cu. ft. transferred to Waterloo from the Annapolis Armory and 3,515 requests for records or information from the records in the centers were provided.

The Division provides a central microfilming service, offering both computer-output and conventional source document microfilming for the use of State agencies. The source document microfilm program is primarily funded by the Division, while the computer-output microfilm (COM) service is operated on a service bureau basis with each user agency charged for the services provided.

During 1972, the use of COM by State agencies increased rapidly in volume, from 2,662,907 images converted from magnetic tape to film in 1971, to 4,283,504 in 1972. There also was a corresponding increase in the number of rolls of film duplicated, from 6,268 to 9,729. Because of the economic advantages of COM to the data processor, as well as the user, there is every indication that the Division will be supporting large volume, high access information systems in ever increasing numbers in the future.
